SATURDAY, MAY 20.

HE WAS FROM MISSOURI. A. Mr. Rose, a gentleman as pleaswhose name he bears; a respected county, Mo., on his way to his relatives at Caney, this state, accompanied by his little herd of calves, crossed the dead line of Springvalley township, is side tracked at Keelville to await the inspection of his herd by the cattle inspector of zinc. said, lively times about the usually Baxter. quiet little burg of Keelville. Each discovery made, as the various inspectors proceeded, added to the and nights will never be forgotten School. by Mr. Rose, the calves and some of the nervous spectators. Inspection No. 1, by Mr. Collins was unevent ful, save for the discovery and removal of a few wood ticks, Missouri chiggers and one insect described in tickology as the Lone Star tick. As a result of the investigations a clean bill of bealth and a safe passport through the "trochas" of Lyon township to his destination was tendered Mr. Rose who paid the fee (25c per head) and took a sigh of relief. But alse! and alasees. This ticket permitted "stop over" privileges and Mr. Rose with his clean bill of health carefully folded in his Covey and Profs. Patton and Carinside pocket retired to his "ship of roll. the plains" to allow his nerves to relax, thinking of an early and unmolested start the following morning. What a mistake! For during that calm, tranquil night the lovers of good government, the terrors to evil doers and law breakers, the atlas or "atlasses" on whose shoulders rest the great responsibilities and future destinies of this corner of Kansas resolved to act! To Do! To Undo! To Hoodoo! To Shearer! Mr. Collins and his work. The Cherokee County Live Stock Assoshistion by request of himself (and possibly others) circled around like a bird of prey and lit aduare on the back of that Rose before he arose. Then began THE "inspection," the official (?) critical, careful unprejudiced, anti-boodle inspection. Some ticks had been found-why not others by others-more of 'em "deadlier than before;" some discovery that would aid science, give a name, add fame to the assoshiation. One tick! Two ticks! Polities! (See the Climax or "Battle ax?" It's easy). The search was not fruitless nor was it tickless; nor louseless. They got 'em all, put 'em in a tomato can.

Messengers were sent with telegrams to the State Sanitary Board. Deputy sheriffs were dispatched to quarantine everything in sight, H-l was a popping! and Collins "ten miles away." This ended the second day of the seige. Collins' stock had depreciated 100 per cent and he was lost in the shuffle. The third day opened with auxious expectation. The ones who were long on law and short on common sense were out of wind and sparring cautiously for an opening (into which they could crawl). The promised appearance of the assoshiation and the State Sanitary Board composed of Taylor Riddle, M. C. Campbell and F. H. Chamberlain had a quieting effect. They came-that is the Sanitary Board came-and reasons not known absent. Examination (or inspection) No. 3 was then begun and in short order completed. The Spanish ticks had all Mr. Rose to go on his way at his Hill. leisure and that they would recommend the tax payers to foot all bills; and addressing the spectators remarked that Mr. Collins' inspection was always sufficient with ...

Take up the White Man's Burden-Send forth the best ye breed-Go, bind your sons to exile

To serve your captives' need; To wait, in heavy barness, On fluttered folk and wild-Your new-caught sullen peoples,

Half devil and half child. Take up the White Man's Burden-The savage wars of peace-Fill full the mouth of Famine And bid the sickness cease

The ports ye shall not enter, The roads ye shall not tread. Go, make them with your living And mark them with your dead

By all ye will or whisper, By all ye leave or do, The silent sullen peoples Shall weigh your God and you.
